

Join gang for classic

IT will be 'kerb-to-kerb' lycra in Glenrowan's main street on Sunday, November 9, when cyclists again converge on the town for the 2008 Kelly Country Classic.

Following in the footsteps of the legendary Kelly Gang, the ride will start and finish in Glenrowan, with the choice of three routes designed to suit a range of rider abilities and fitness levels.

Participants will have the opportunity to win a range of fantastic food, beverage, accommodation and cycling goods in lucky prize draws on the day.

The most challenging ride will cover 150km of Kelly Country, from Glenrowan to Winton, Lurg, Benalla East, Tatong, Molyullah, Moyhu, Greta and back to Glenrowan.

Still challenging, but not quite so arduous, riders can choose the 100km ride from Glenrowan to Lurg, Myrrhee, Moyhu and returning to Glenrowan.

The 50km option will take cyclists from Glenrowan to Greta, Moyhu and back to the town, made famous by the Kelly Gang's last stand.

Wangaratta Bicycle User

Group and Northeast Health Wangaratta have spent months planning the event, which is a major fundraiser for the hospital.

For more information and an entry form you can visit www.nhw.hume.org.au.

Early bird entry closes on October 10.