Why Volunteer?

Around 4.4 million Australians make a difference in their local community by volunteering each year, doing a wide range of tasks for a wide range of not-for-profit organisations. People volunteer for many reasons and in many different ways. There is a great deal of satisfaction that comes from making a difference. You can experience working for causes that you are interested in, or assist in creating change in areas that are important to you. You can build new skills, meet new people and add variety to your work experience.

Northeast Health Wangaratta recruits and trains volunteers to provide many services that supplement the care and treatments provided at NHW. Volunteers complement the service of NHW. Volunteers add to the quality of health care by helping patients, their families, the staff, visitors and the community. By having Volunteers at NHW, we are bringing the 'Community' into the hospital.

Every volunteer selected will undertake a Volunteer Orientation Program and will regularly attend training updates and meetings.

You could be our next
VOLUNTEER!
